Let's go with these responses. I discussed at length with Ben and Africa.
Ben

Ms. Bayliss,

Thank you for reaching out. Please see Chief Raymond's written response to your questions.

1. As I've stated and will remain consistent with, I will not comment on matters while there is an ongoing criminal or administrative investigation because to do so would violate an officer's due process rights and jeopardize the investigation. As to calls for my resignation, I remain committed to serving and protecting the citizens of Shreveport and have no intent to resign.

2. It is my practice to notify the administration of in-custody deaths, as was done in both occurrences. I am the appointed chief of police and I am responsible for the efficient operation of the police department. I deal with critical matters on a daily basis and when those incidents need to be brought to the attention of the Mayor, whom I directly report to, then I bring them to the Mayor or the CAO.

It's Deborah Bayliss, reporter with the Shreveport Times. I work with Emily.

1. I'm trying to get a comment regarding the calls for Chief Raymond's and Sgt. Brent Mason's resignation, regarding Mason's Facebook post about the Minneapolis police-involved death of George Floyd. There also are calls from protestors here for Brent Mason to be fired.

1. Additionally, can you confirm there were two, police custody deaths over the past two months. There's been a lot of talk about it and one council member said he wasn't aware of it until last Wednesday. What is the protocol for the police department to report in-custody deaths to the mayor's office and were those two deaths reported to the mayor's office?

Thanks,
Deborah Bayliss

Cpt. Willhite,

I'm trying to get a comment from Chief Raymond for a story I'm writing and one that was already written by my editor. Do I need to go through you for comment or can I speak directly with Chief Raymond?

Thanks,
Deborah Bayliss
